

POSITION TITLE: Project Engineer
DEPARTMENT: Operations
JOB TYPE: Full Time
REPORTS TO: Director of Project Development

FUNCTION

As a Project Engineer Auditor/Developer you will audit, design and develop proposals, present to customer, and close sales for our Engineering Department. Supports markets such as, but not limited to, commercial, industrial, Municipal, State and Federal with value driven services by providing modern, energy efficient lighting to reduce energy consumption and spending. The position has a combination of both field (85%) and office responsibilities (15%). The Project Engineer reports to the Director of Project Development and must be willing to travel in the Southern California Region.

SUMMARY

- Conduct on-site energy audits
- Calculate Energy savings
- Perform Engineering Development and Design experience
- Select products and identify measures to fit the needs of the customer
- Provide accurate pricing quotes for proposals
- Prepare and present proposals to customer
- Explain the feature and benefits of the proposed measures
- Maintain client communication and deliver superior customer service
- Secure necessary documents and information from customers
- Update and maintain all systems required
- Report directly to Director of Project Development
- Act professionally and ethically always

EDUCATION/EXPERIENCE

4 years technical education at an accredited post high school institution whose primary focus is the Energy Industry is desired.

Knowledge of basic commercial building systems and components such as lighting, emergency generators, switchgear, motor control centers, panel boards, etc.; basic HVAC systems, familiarization with variable frequency drives and their applications, and other applicable electrical systems knowledge is desired.